NOTE.

This book is intended to aid all social workers, whether in the field or in court. The text in most instances is the condensed statement of the law, and the marginal references indicate where the law in full may be found.

Whenever there is any doubt as to the application or construction of the law in question, the full text citation of which is given should be consulted.

It must not be taken that the provisions and enumerations found in this manual exclude other provisions or enumerations. It is impossible to print the law in full and so, much matter necessarily has been left out. It is hoped, however, that everything relating to juvenile matters will be found here.

Many new laws have been added to the last revision.

The council year practically is from April 1 to April 1. Accordingly, council proceedings for March 1915, will be designated herein for 1914, whereas proceedings for April will be designated 1915.

Such order is enforceable against the property of the person charged.

If it appears from the testimony of a physician or psychologist, or from other evidence that a dependent or delinquent child in the juvenile court is feeble-minded, some officer or reputable citizen may be directed by the court to file a petition under this act; also may order the detention of any child pending the hearing on such petition. Sec. 20.

On conviction of crime or for violation of a city ordinance, or where a child is before the juvenile court, if the court is satisfied on the testimony of a physician or a psychologist or other evidence that the person or child is feeble-minded, it may suspend sentence or the order, and direct that a petition be filed under this act. ## SPECIAL COURTS IN CHICAGO

THE COURT OF DOMESTIC RELATIONS.

Branch 10 is set apart for the trial and disposition of cases on the following charges: violations of city ordinances (sections refer to Chicago Code, 1911):

Sale of cigarettes to minors, section 732; sale of cigarettes 600 feet from school house, section 733; gathering of cigar refuse by minors, sections 736 to 739; sale of tobacco to minors under sixteen years of age, section 734; sale of intoxicating liquors to minors, section 1543; purchase of intoxicating liquors by minors, section 1996; obtaining intoxicating liquors by minor by false pretense, section 1998; sale of materials saturated with liquors to minors under sixteen years, section 2000; giving samples of intoxicating liquors in bottles or otherwise to minors, sections 1574, 1575; gambling by minors in saloons, section 1997; jumping upon moving cars by minors under the age of 18 years, section 1999; improper public exhibition or employment of children under 14 years of age, sections 2001, 2002, 2003; employment of minors under 16 years of age in pawn shops, sections 1756, 1759; receiving pledges from minors by pawn brokers, sections 1754 to 1759; sale of deadly weapons to minors, section 2814.

Violations of State Laws. (The chapters and paragraphs refer to Hurd's Edition of the Statutes of 1911):

Abduction of children under 12 years of age, chap. 38, Par. 2; improper public exhibition or employment of children under 14 years of age—first offense, chap. 38, par. 42a, 42c, inc.; abandonment of wife or child, chap. 68, par. 24; bastardy, chap. 17; contributing to dependency or delinquency of children, chap. 38, par. 42hb; violation of laws relating to child labor; violation of all laws relating to compulsory education and truancy; climbing upon cars by minors, chap. 114, par. 79, 80, 81; permitting minors to gamble in saloons, chap. 38, par. 61a; permitting minors to enter dance halls where intoxicating liquor is sold, chap. 43, par. 48, 49; sale or gift of deadly weapons to minors, chap. 38, par. 54b; buying or procuring intoxicating liquors for minors, chap. 43, par. 6, 6½; sale of tobacco to minors, chap. 38, par. 42f, 42g; an act to define and punish crimes against children, approved and in force May 17, 1907.

By order of court all such cases in which capiases and warrants shall be issued in the First District shall be transferred to this branch for trial and disposition. Practically all of the cases disposed of in the Court of Domestic Relations are instituted there and not in some other branch of the court. The procedure generally is about as follows: the complaining witness is interviewed and a complaint card made out. If the interview shows the case to be one that should be referred to some organization or other court, the reference is made; if a conference or consultation is indicated, that is held; if a warrant is indicated, then a history sheet is made out based largely upon the interview with the complaining witness, the form of the history sheet depending upon the form of the complaint; this history sheet then goes to the clerk of the court who prepares the information or complaint; upon this a warrant issues. Every step is watched and followed up in this court. If upon trial the defendant is placed upon probation and ordered to make payments for the support of those dependent upon him, this order is followed up. If the defendant fails to pay or comply with other orders of the court, the necessary steps are taken to compel such compliance. It is hoped a complete set of records may be kept in connection with this branch.

MORALS COURT.

By order of court there has been established a branch of the municipal court of Chicago before which all criminal and quasi criminal cases or offenses of keeping, maintaining, leasing and patronizing houses of ill fame and places for the practice of prostitution or lewdness, enticing female into or detaining female in a house of prostitution or other place where prostitution, fornication or concubinage is practiced, inducing female to leave this state for the purpose of prostitution or fornication, pandering, abduction, seduction, living in open state of adultery or fornication, open lewdness or other notorious act of public indecency tending to debauch the public morals, selling or dealing in obscene, immoral or impure books, pictures or literature, and night walking, shall be brought, tried and disposed of. The above shall include all criminal informations, complaints to hold to await the action of a grand jury and complaints for violation of ordinances. Said branch court shall be designated as criminal branch No. 2.

BOYS' COURT.

There has been established a branch of the municipal court of Chicago for the trial of all boys between the ages of 17 and 21 who have been charged with any crime or the violation of any city ordinance. The warrants are not issued in this court. They are issued at other branches and the returns are made to the boys' court. The clerk of the court in each case makes out what is commonly called an identification card. These cards are filed alphabetically. This method enables the judge to know whether or not a certain boy has been in that court before and on what charge.
